

Who are the top 3 artists who recorded the highest number of albums?

Top 3 artists with the highest number of albums

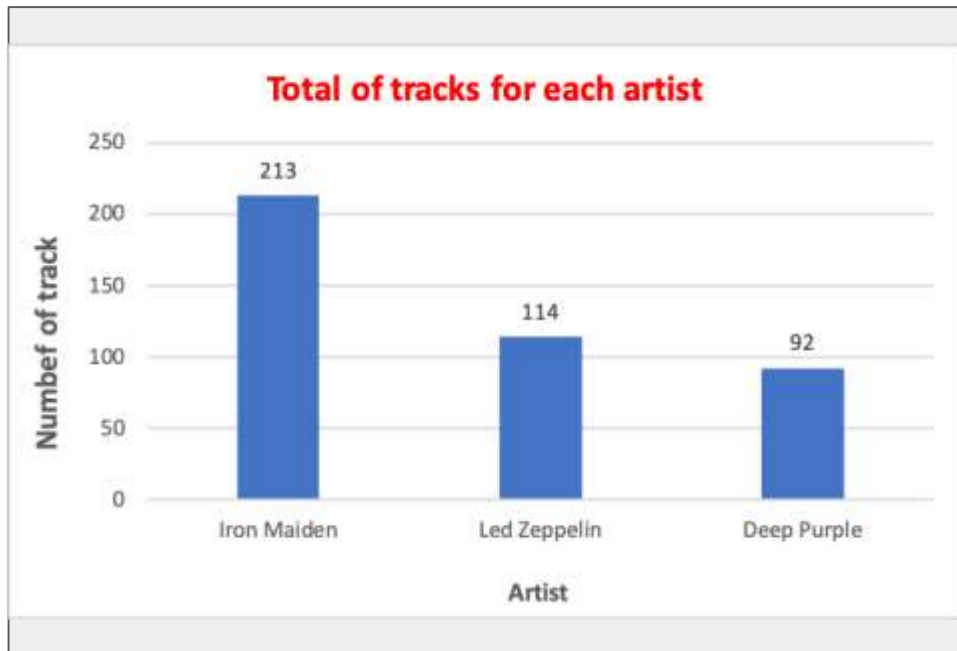

As it shows in the pie chart, the most popular artist Iron Maiden got the highest recorded albums among the other artists which it shows that he recorded 21 albums. Following him comes Led Zeppelin who recorded 14 albums. Third one is Deep Purple who recorded 11 albums.

What's the total price of tracks for each artist?

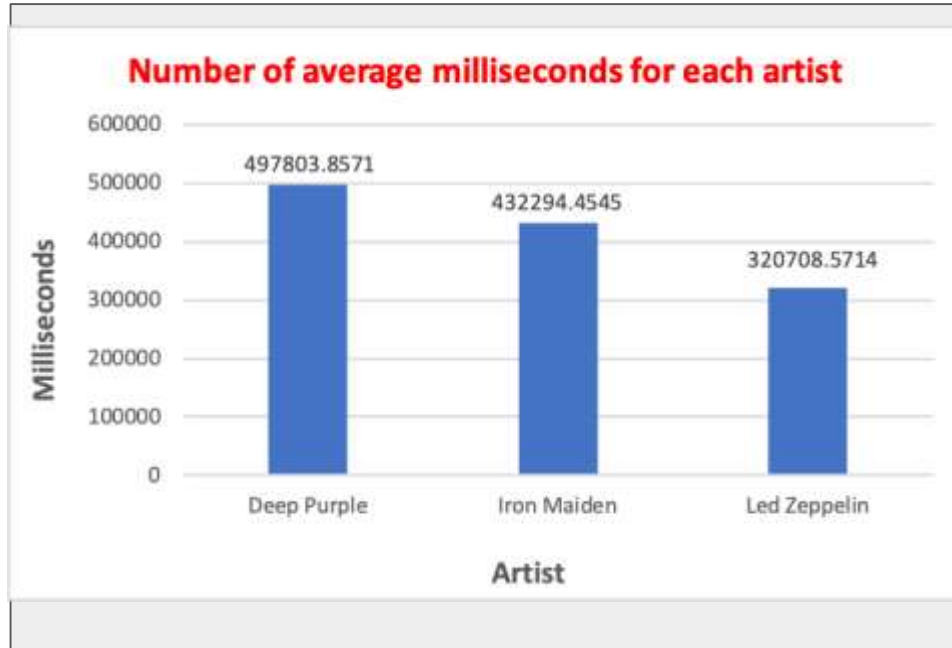

It shows in the graph, artists with the most total unit price of track. It shows that the most popular Iron Maiden in the third rank has the most total price of tracks which he is having at 210.87. While the lowest one, the first rank is Deep Purple having at 91.08. Led Zeppelin in the middle rank is having 112.86.

What's total numbers of tracks for each artist?

It shows in the graph, Artist Iron Maiden has the highest number of tracks 213 and the lowest one is Artist Deep Purple who has 92 tracks.

What is average milliseconds of a track for the following Title_Albums: "MK III The Final Concerts [Disc 1], BBC Sessions [Disc 1] [Live], A Matter of Life and Death" for each artist?

This graph represents the number of average milliseconds for each artist. It shows in the graph that the artist Deep Purple with the highest title album "MK III The Final Concerts [Disc 1]" at 497803.8571 Milliseconds. Next comes the artist Iron Maiden with the title album "A Matter of Life and Death" at 432294.4545 Milliseconds. Last one is the title album "BBC Sessions [Disc 1] [Live]" at 320708.5714 Milliseconds for the artist Led Zeppelin.